DESCRIPTION

Journal of International Business Disciplines encourages and supports scholarly works that focus on theories, research, and applications regarding topics related to business and organizations including but not limited to: accounting, advertising, communication, economics, diversity, globalization, groups, teams, finance, human resources, information technology, leadership, management, marketing, operations, and organizational behavior/theory.

The editors of Journal of International Business Disciplines welcome quantitative, qualitative, theoretical-based, and conceptual papers. The editors are committed to blind and fair review of all submitted articles based on the following criteria: importance and timeliness of the issue, clarity of purpose, compatibility of the purpose and the design of the study, soundness of the methodology, and readability and flow of the materials.

Journal of International Business Disciplines encourages its reviewers to provide professional, constructive and timely feedback to the author (s) for continuous improvement in their current and future scholarly works.
