

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
Course and Teaching Evaluation

Date 05/03/04

Intro to Calc part II
Name of Course

Chowdhury
Instructor

Mathematics
Course Department

MATH 118
Course Number

Identify the type of course (circle one or more):

Lecture or Section

Seminar

Laboratory

Introductory Math/Language

Studio/Performance

Other

This form is intended to assist your instructor in evaluating his or her teaching effectiveness, and to assist those responsible for promotions and course assignments. Your instructor would appreciate a thoughtful response to this form. Please make your judgement clear by circling only one of the responses following each question.

I. How would you describe your efforts in this course (circle one)?

Strenuous

Fairly Serious

Casual

Very Slight

II. The Course. Please comment on the course and its organization. Among the things you might consider are: the amount and suitability of assigned work; the design and contents of the material; the appropriateness and fairness of the modes of evaluation.

The course was well organized, the amount of work increased as the semester progressed only b/c the material was more complicated. I really didn't like the book. Evaluation was fair.

Rate the overall quality of this course (circle one).

Outstanding

Good

Acceptable

Poor

III. The Teaching. Please comment on the quality of the teaching in this course. Depending on the type of course, among the things you might consider are: the instructor's level of preparation; the ability to raise and answer questions; the ability to guide discussion; enthusiasm; degree of intellectual stimulation; incentive to further study; helpfulness of comments and suggestions on tests and papers.

I really enjoyed having class w this professor. At first it was hard to understand his accent but everyone got used to it after a bit. He was always prepared, enthusiastic, willing to give individuals extra help, & definitely is able to answer questions. Also gives really good notes.

Rate the overall quality of the teaching (circle one).

Outstanding

Good

Fair

Poor

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
Course and Teaching Evaluation

Date 05/03/04

Calculus
Name of Course

Professor Mrinal Chowdhury
Instructor

math-
Course Department

math 118
Course Number

Identify the type of course (circle one or more):

- Lecture or Section Seminar Laboratory
Introductory Math/Language Studio/Performance Other

This form is intended to assist your instructor in evaluating his or her teaching effectiveness, and to assist those responsible for promotions and course assignments. Your instructor would appreciate a thoughtful response to this form. Please make your judgement clear by circling only one of the responses following each question.

I. How would you describe your efforts in this course (circle one)?

- Strenuous Fairly Serious Casual Very Slight

II. The Course. Please comment on the course and its organization. Among the things you might consider are: the amount and suitability of assigned work; the design and contents of the material; the appropriateness and fairness of the modes of evaluation.

The course organization was great. There was never too much assigned work at any one time. The presentation of the material was very effective in the learning process. The grading was more than fair.

Rate the overall quality of this course (circle one).

- Outstanding Good Acceptable Poor

III. The Teaching. Please comment on the quality of the teaching in this course. Depending on the type of course, among the things you might consider are: the instructor's level of preparation; the ability to raise and answer questions; the ability to guide discussion; enthusiasm; degree of intellectual stimulation; incentive to further study; helpfulness of comments and suggestions on tests and papers.

Professor Chowdhury was amazingly helpful with all of the material. He took particular interest in all of his students and made sure everyone understood. He was just great.

Rate the overall quality of the teaching (circle one).

- Outstanding Good Fair Poor

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
Course and Teaching Evaluation

Date 5/03/04

INTRO TO CALCULUS
Name of Course

Prof. Chowdhury
Instructor

MATH
Course Department

MATH 118
Course Number

Identify the type of course (circle one or more):

- Lecture or Section Seminar Laboratory
 Introductory Math/Language Studio/Performance Other

This form is intended to assist your instructor in evaluating his or her teaching effectiveness, and to assist those responsible for promotions and course assignments. Your instructor would appreciate a thoughtful response to this form. Please make your judgement clear by circling only one of the responses following each question.

I. How would you describe your efforts in this course (circle one)?

- Strenuous Fairly Serious Casual Very Slight

II. The Course. Please comment on the course and its organization. Among the things you might consider are: the amount and suitability of assigned work; the design and contents of the material; the appropriateness and fairness of the modes of evaluation.

The course was good, although the organization and syllabus was confusing

Rate the overall quality of this course (circle one).

- Outstanding Good Acceptable Poor

III. The Teaching. Please comment on the quality of the teaching in this course. Depending on the type of course, among the things you might consider are: the instructor's level of preparation; the ability to raise and answer questions; the ability to guide discussion; enthusiasm; degree of intellectual stimulation; incentive to further study; helpfulness of comments and suggestions on tests and papers.

Teacher was incredibly smart and well planned. He struggled to make us understand but he worked hard to teach us a lot.

Rate the overall quality of the teaching (circle one).

- Outstanding Good Fair Poor

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
Course and Teaching Evaluation

Date 5/3/04

Intro to Calculus
Name of Course

M. Chowdhury
Instructor

Math
Course Department

118
Course Number

Identify the type of course (circle one or more):

Lecture or Section

Seminar

Laboratory

Introductory Math/Language

Studio/Performance

Other

This form is intended to assist your instructor in evaluating his or her teaching effectiveness, and to assist those responsible for promotions and course assignments. Your instructor would appreciate a thoughtful response to this form. Please make your judgement clear by circling only one of the responses following each question.

I. How would you describe your efforts in this course (circle one)?

Strenuous

Fairly Serious

Casual

Very Slight

II. The Course. Please comment on the course and its organization. Among the things you might consider are: the amount and suitability of assigned work; the design and contents of the material; the appropriateness and fairness of the modes of evaluation.

The amount of work was suitable. The mode of evaluation was strict, but the course was gentle enough to help us out.

Rate the overall quality of this course (circle one).

Outstanding

Good

Acceptable

Poor

III. The Teaching. Please comment on the quality of the teaching in this course. Depending on the type of course, among the things you might consider are: the instructor's level of preparation; the ability to raise and answer questions; the ability to guide discussion; enthusiasm; degree of intellectual stimulation; incentive to further study; helpfulness of comments and suggestions on tests and papers.

Though it was difficult in the beginning to understand him, it soon became much easier, and his teaching style made our lives much easier.

Rate the overall quality of the teaching (circle one).

Outstanding

Good

Fair

Poor

WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
Course and Teaching Evaluation

Date 05/31/04

Intro calc part II
Name of Course

Myrna Chaudhury
Instructor

Math
Course Department

118
Course Number

Identify the type of course (circle one or more):

Lecture or Section

Seminar

Laboratory

Introductory Math/Language

Studio/Performance

Other

This form is intended to assist your instructor in evaluating his or her teaching effectiveness, and to assist those responsible for promotions and course assignments. Your instructor would appreciate a thoughtful response to this form. Please make your judgement clear by circling only one of the responses following each question.

I. How would you describe your efforts in this course (circle one)?

Strenuous

Fairly Serious

Casual

Very Slight

II. The Course. Please comment on the course and its organization. Among the things you might consider are: the amount and suitability of assigned work; the design and contents of the material; the appropriateness and fairness of the modes of evaluation.

The work, assignments, and material were challenging but manageable

Rate the overall quality of this course (circle one).

Outstanding

Good

Acceptable

Poor

III. The Teaching. Please comment on the quality of the teaching in this course. Depending on the type of course, among the things you might consider are: the instructor's level of preparation; the ability to raise and answer questions; the ability to guide discussion; enthusiasm; degree of intellectual stimulation; incentive to further study; helpfulness of comments and suggestions on tests and papers.

Myrna was very helpful and put forth strong effort to help

Rate the overall quality of the teaching (circle one).

Outstanding

Good

Fair

Poor